

ADVISOR APPLICATION

NU's program is basically student-directed. Offering assistance and encouragement to our students results in greater course completions and increased student satisfaction. Goals of advisors include:

- Help the student clarify values and goals
- Facilitate the spiritual development of NU students
- Provide a prompt and adequate response to student inquiries
- Amplify the human resource capacity of NU
- Promote individual accountability
- Guide the student toward successful completion of the academic plan
- Teach the student how to study and how to learn
